

(Lk 1: 37)

«For nothing will be impossible with God»

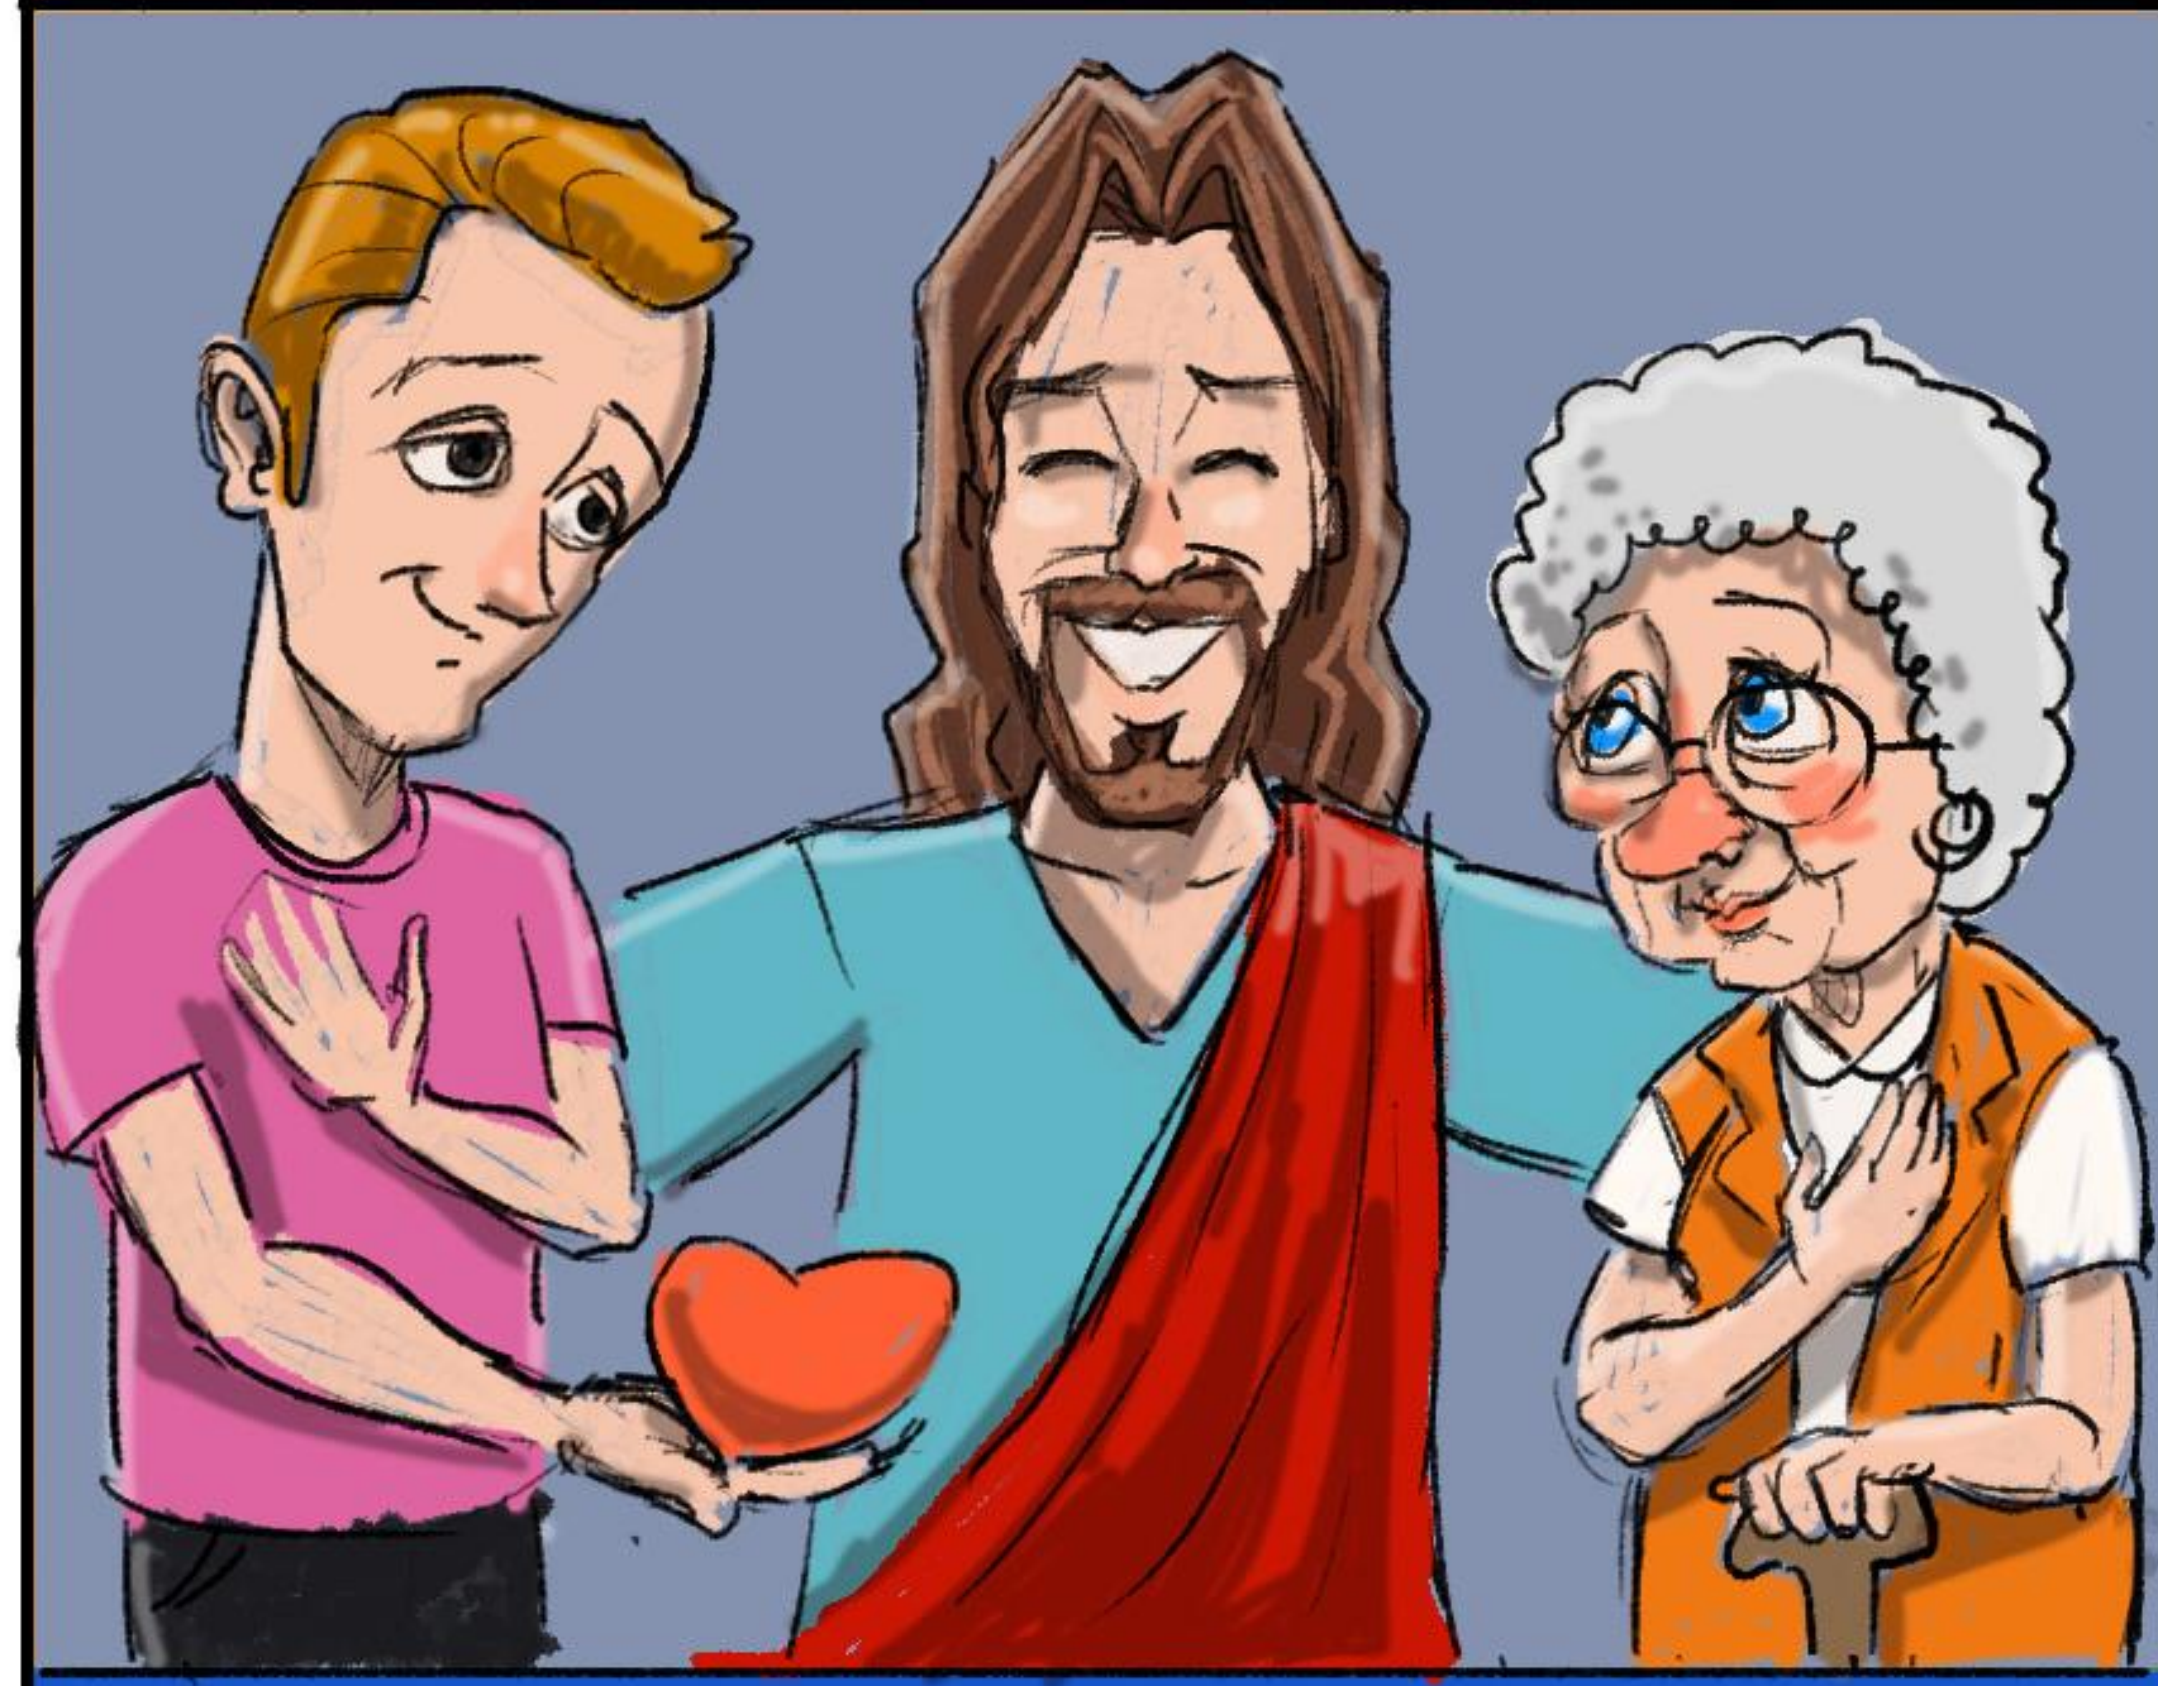

The angel Gabriel appears to Mary in her home at Nazareth and tells her God's plan for her life. She will conceive and bear a son and name him Jesus.
He tells her: «The Holy Spirit will descend upon you (...)» [1] and then adds: «For nothing will be impossible with God.»[2].

These words underline for us how close God is to people. When we are with God and freely accept everything from him, nothing is impossible.

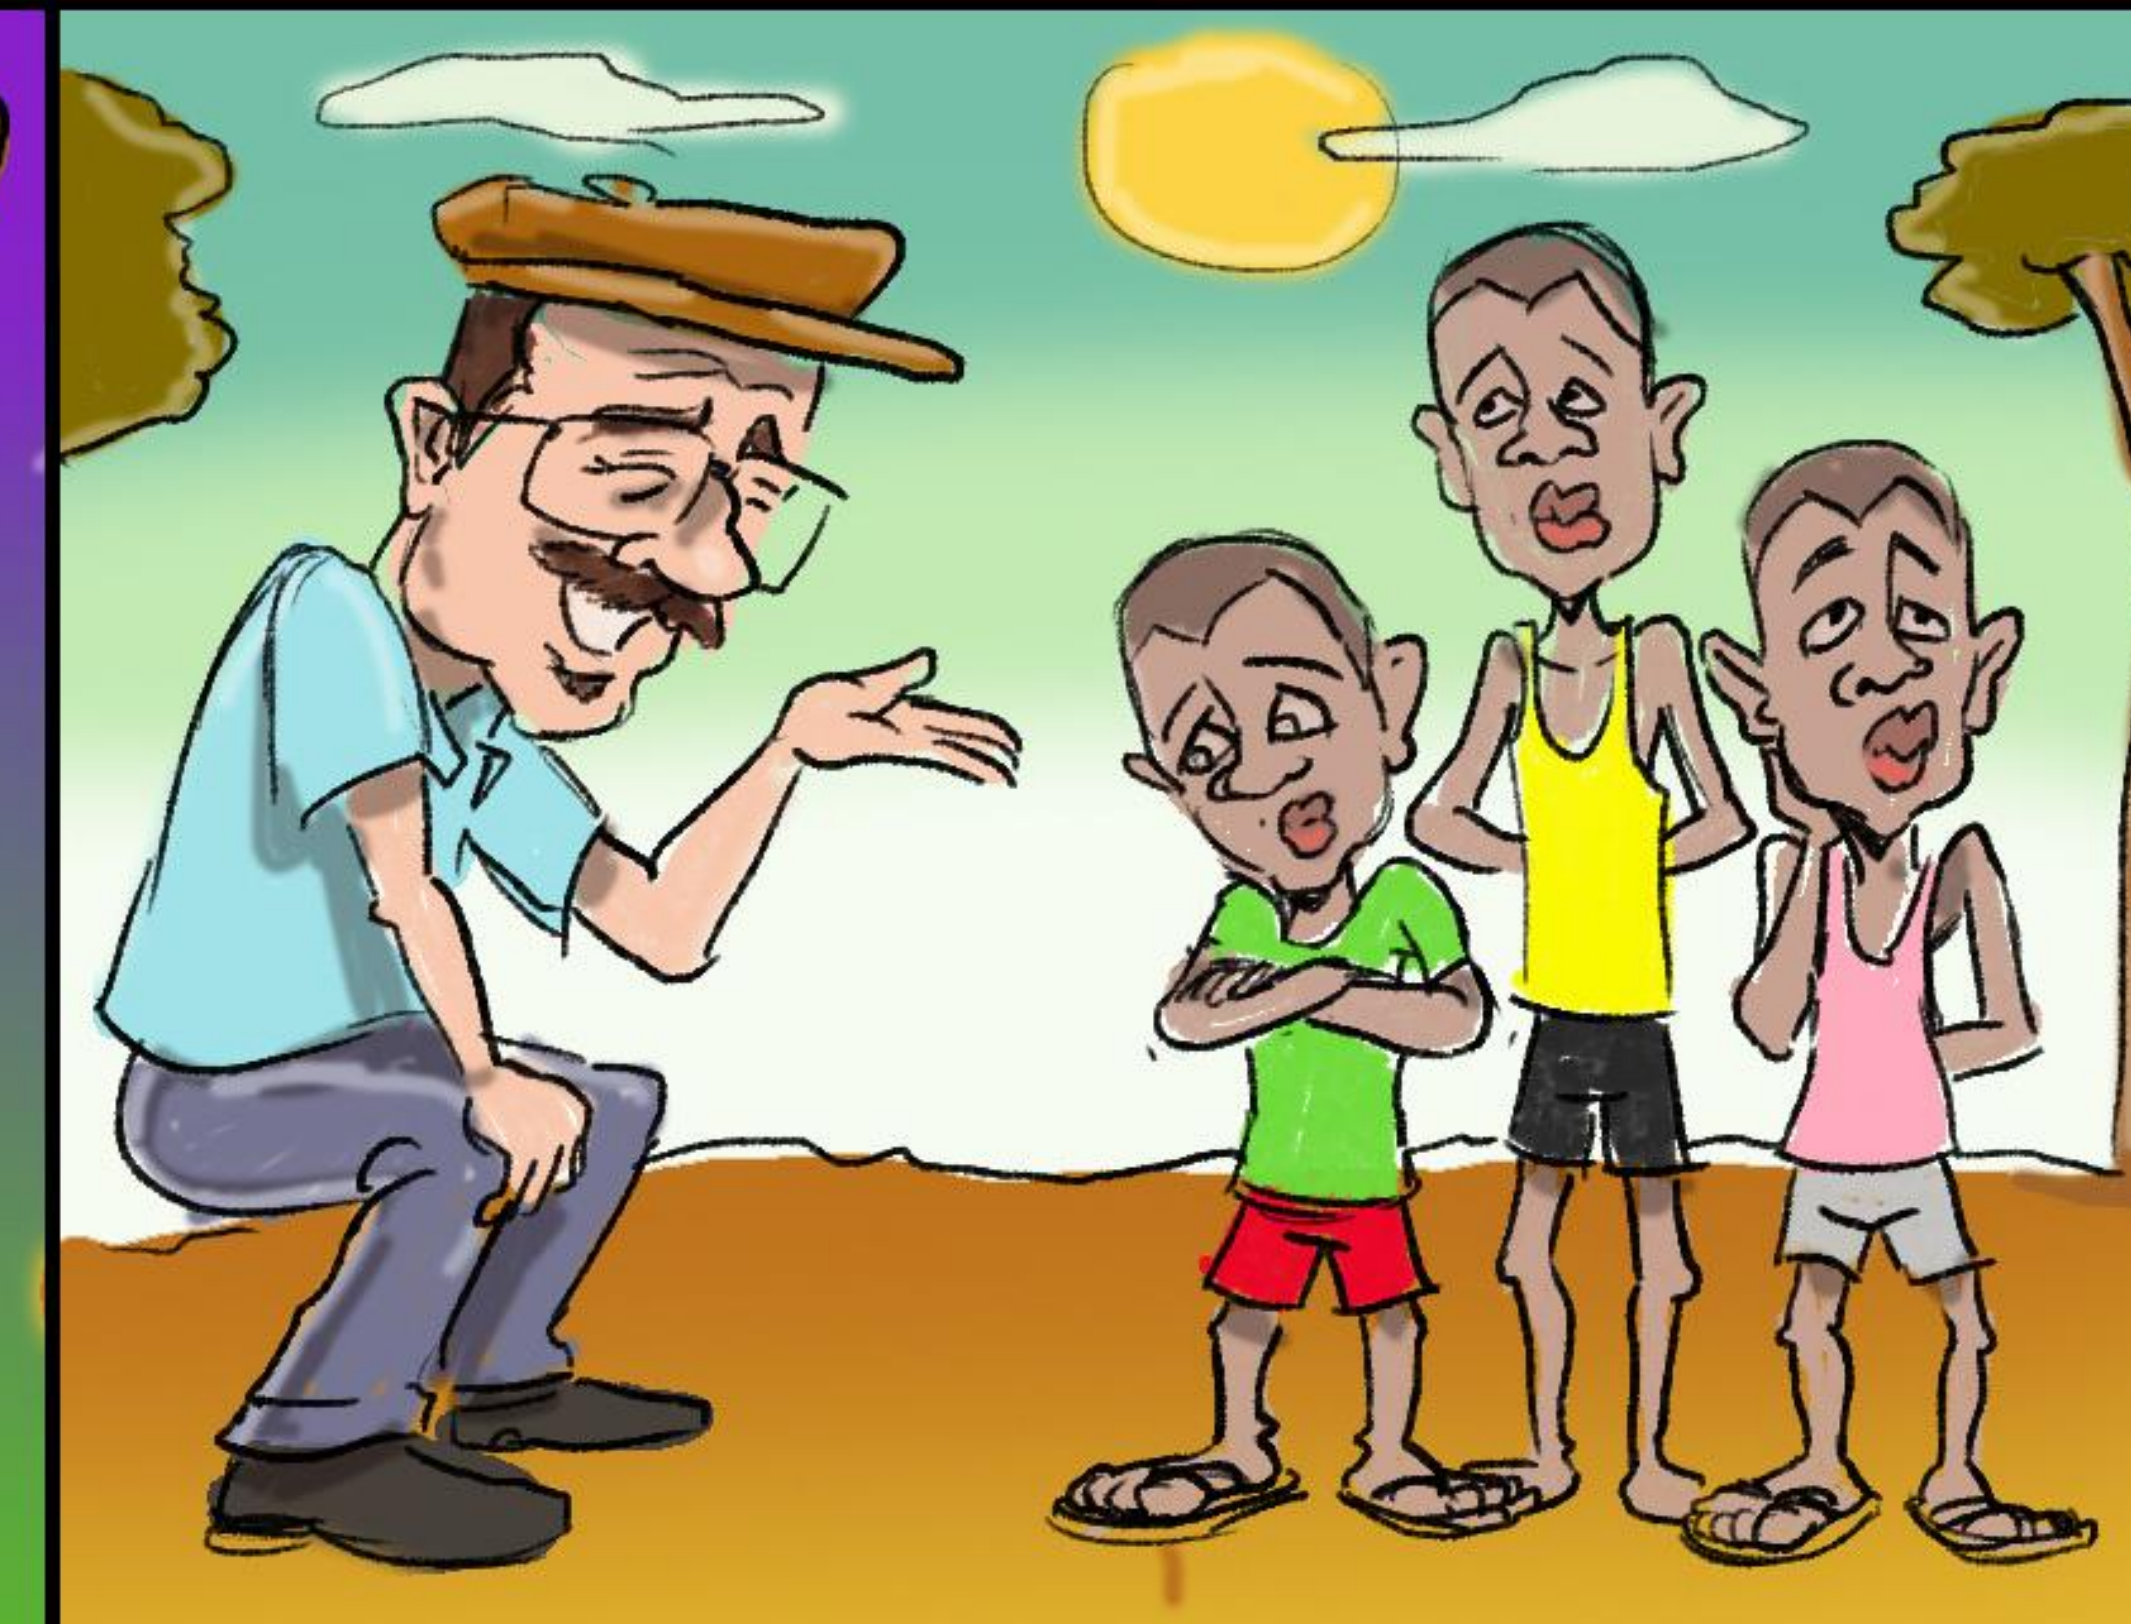

How can we live this Word of life?
First of all, by believing in God and trusting that he can work within us, even though we have limitations and are weak - even in the darkest moments of our lives.

We can (...) give witness that we believe in the love that Christ has for us. We can show people that Christ is with us, that God the Father, in his great love, is with us. [3]

Augusto is from Spain and belongs to the Focolare Movement. He told us: "Years ago, when I lived in Africa, I often met with a group of young people who wanted to live like real Christians, and yet they found it very difficult to do so in their daily lives. They said it was very hard to stay faithful to their religion and to follow the teachings of the Gospel.

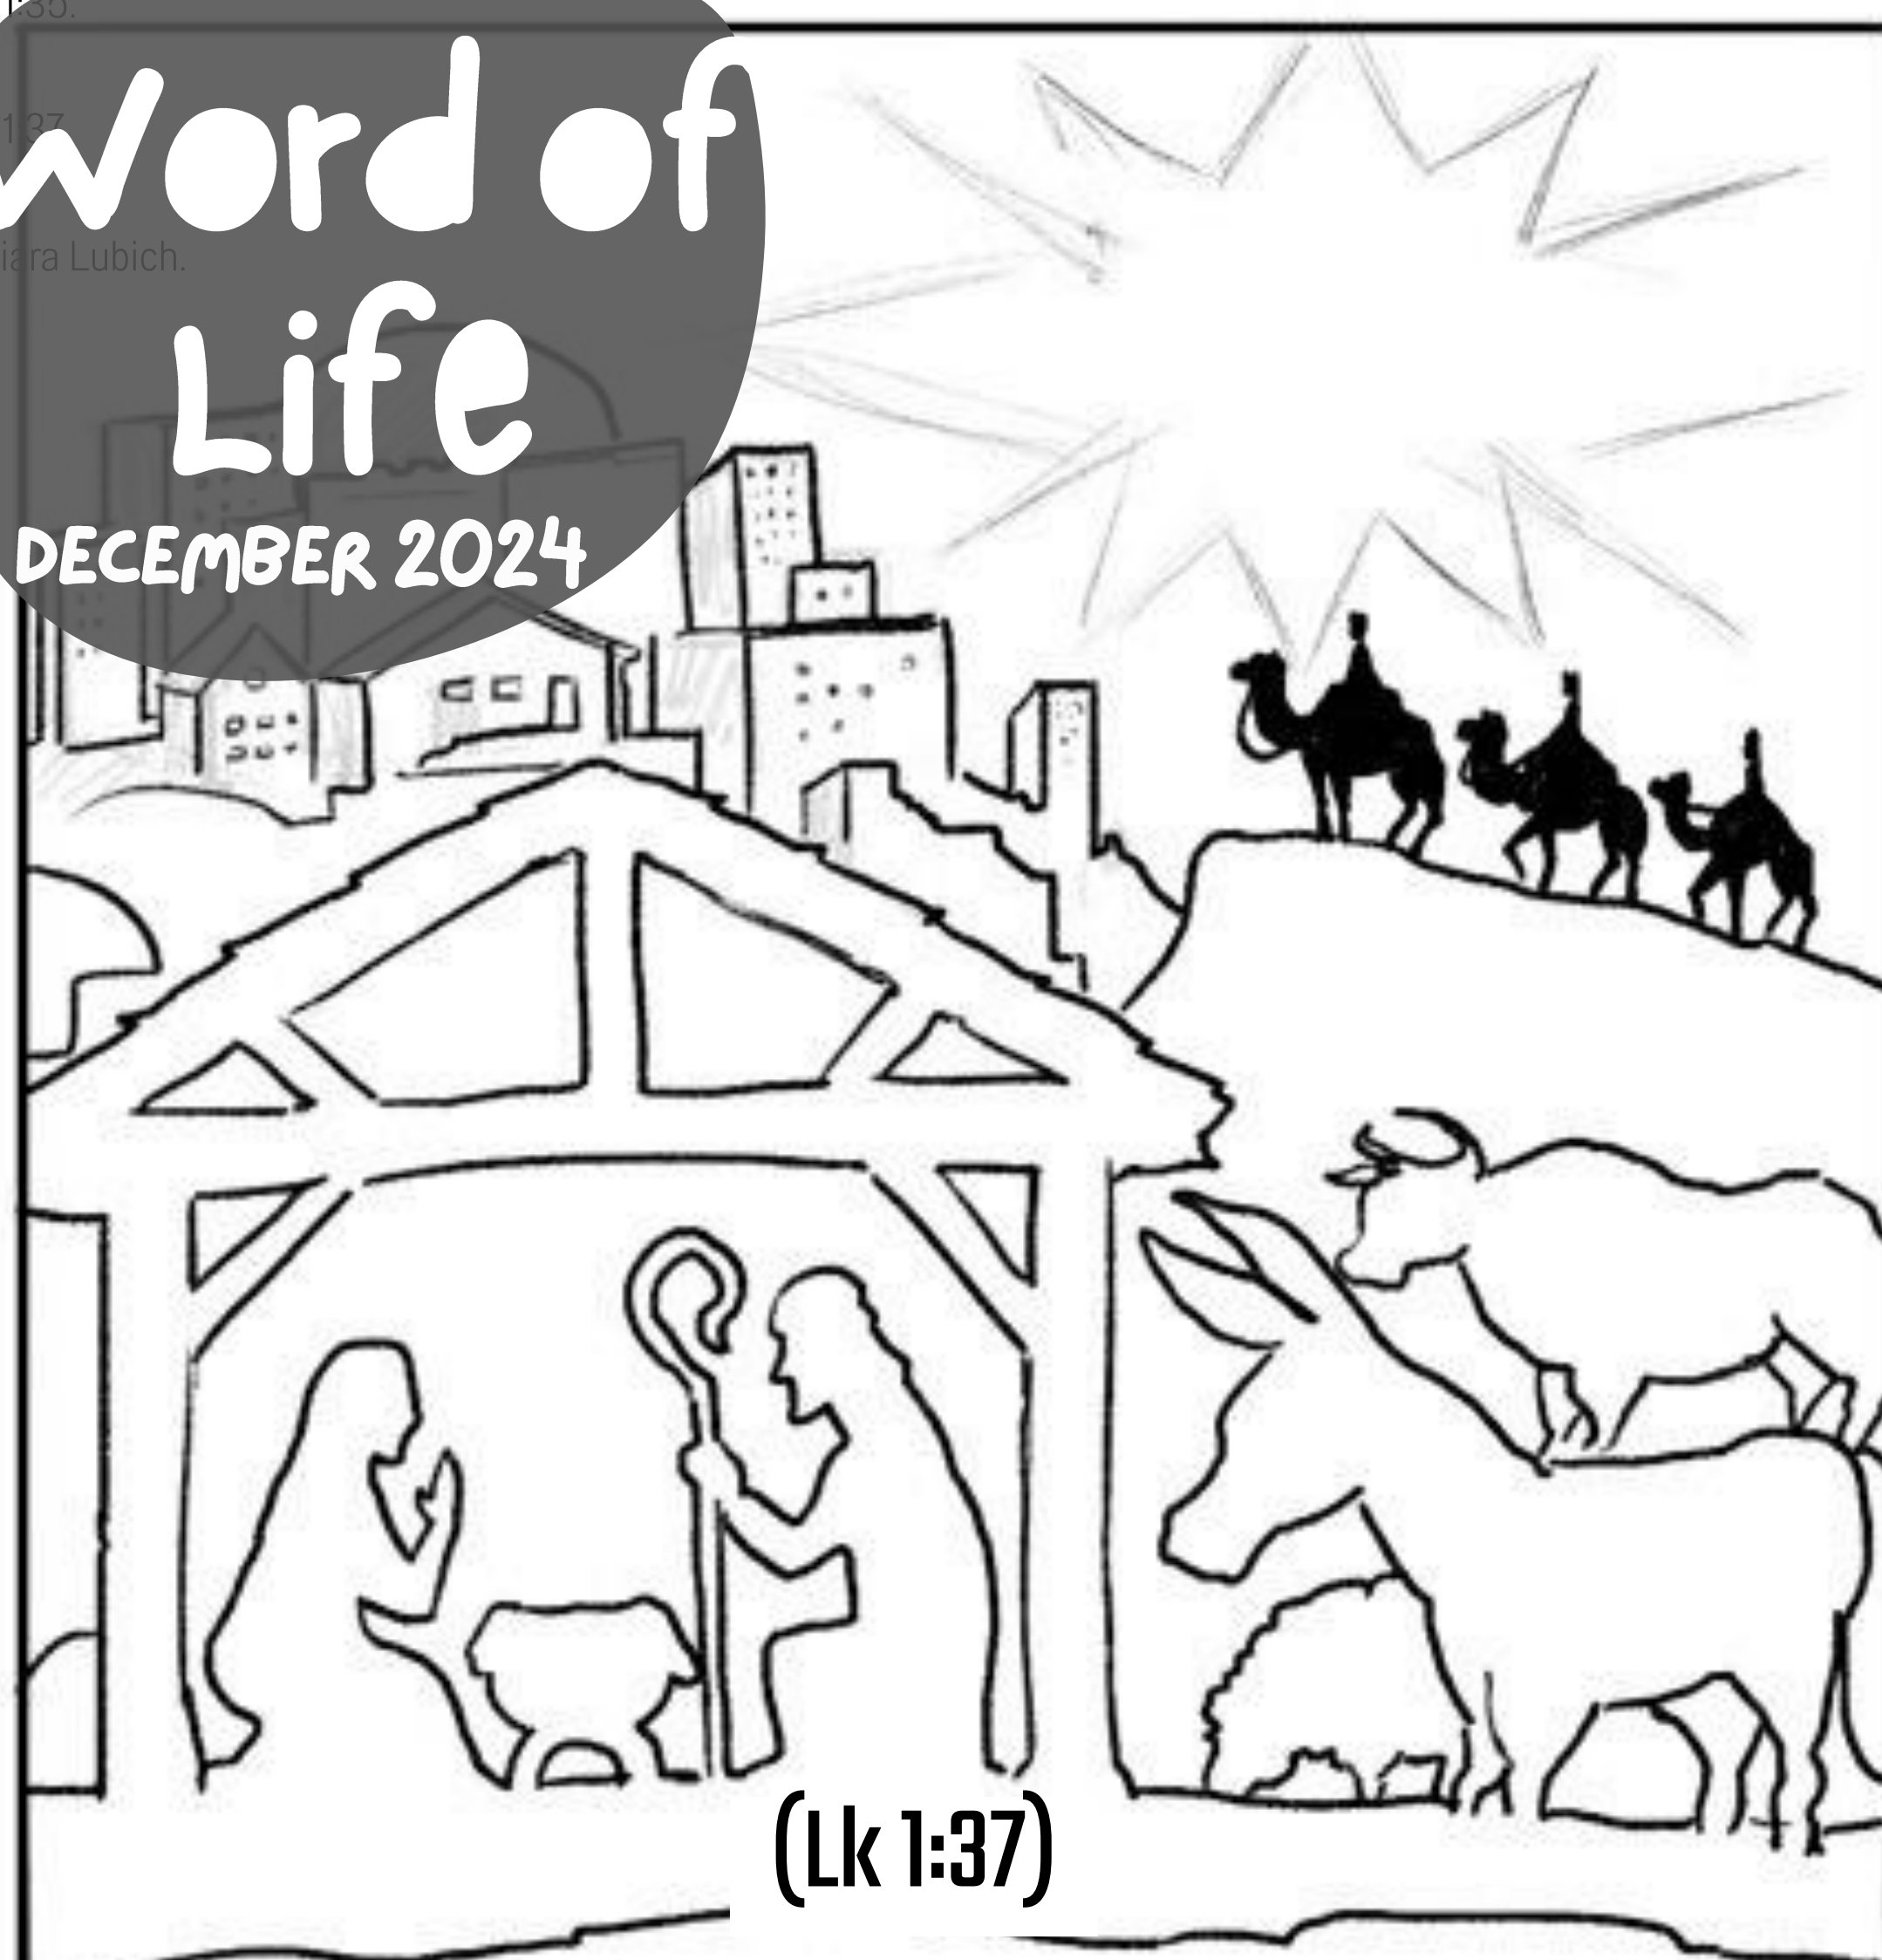

We would talk for hours, and in the end, we always reached the same conclusion: «On our own, it's impossible, but together we can do it!»

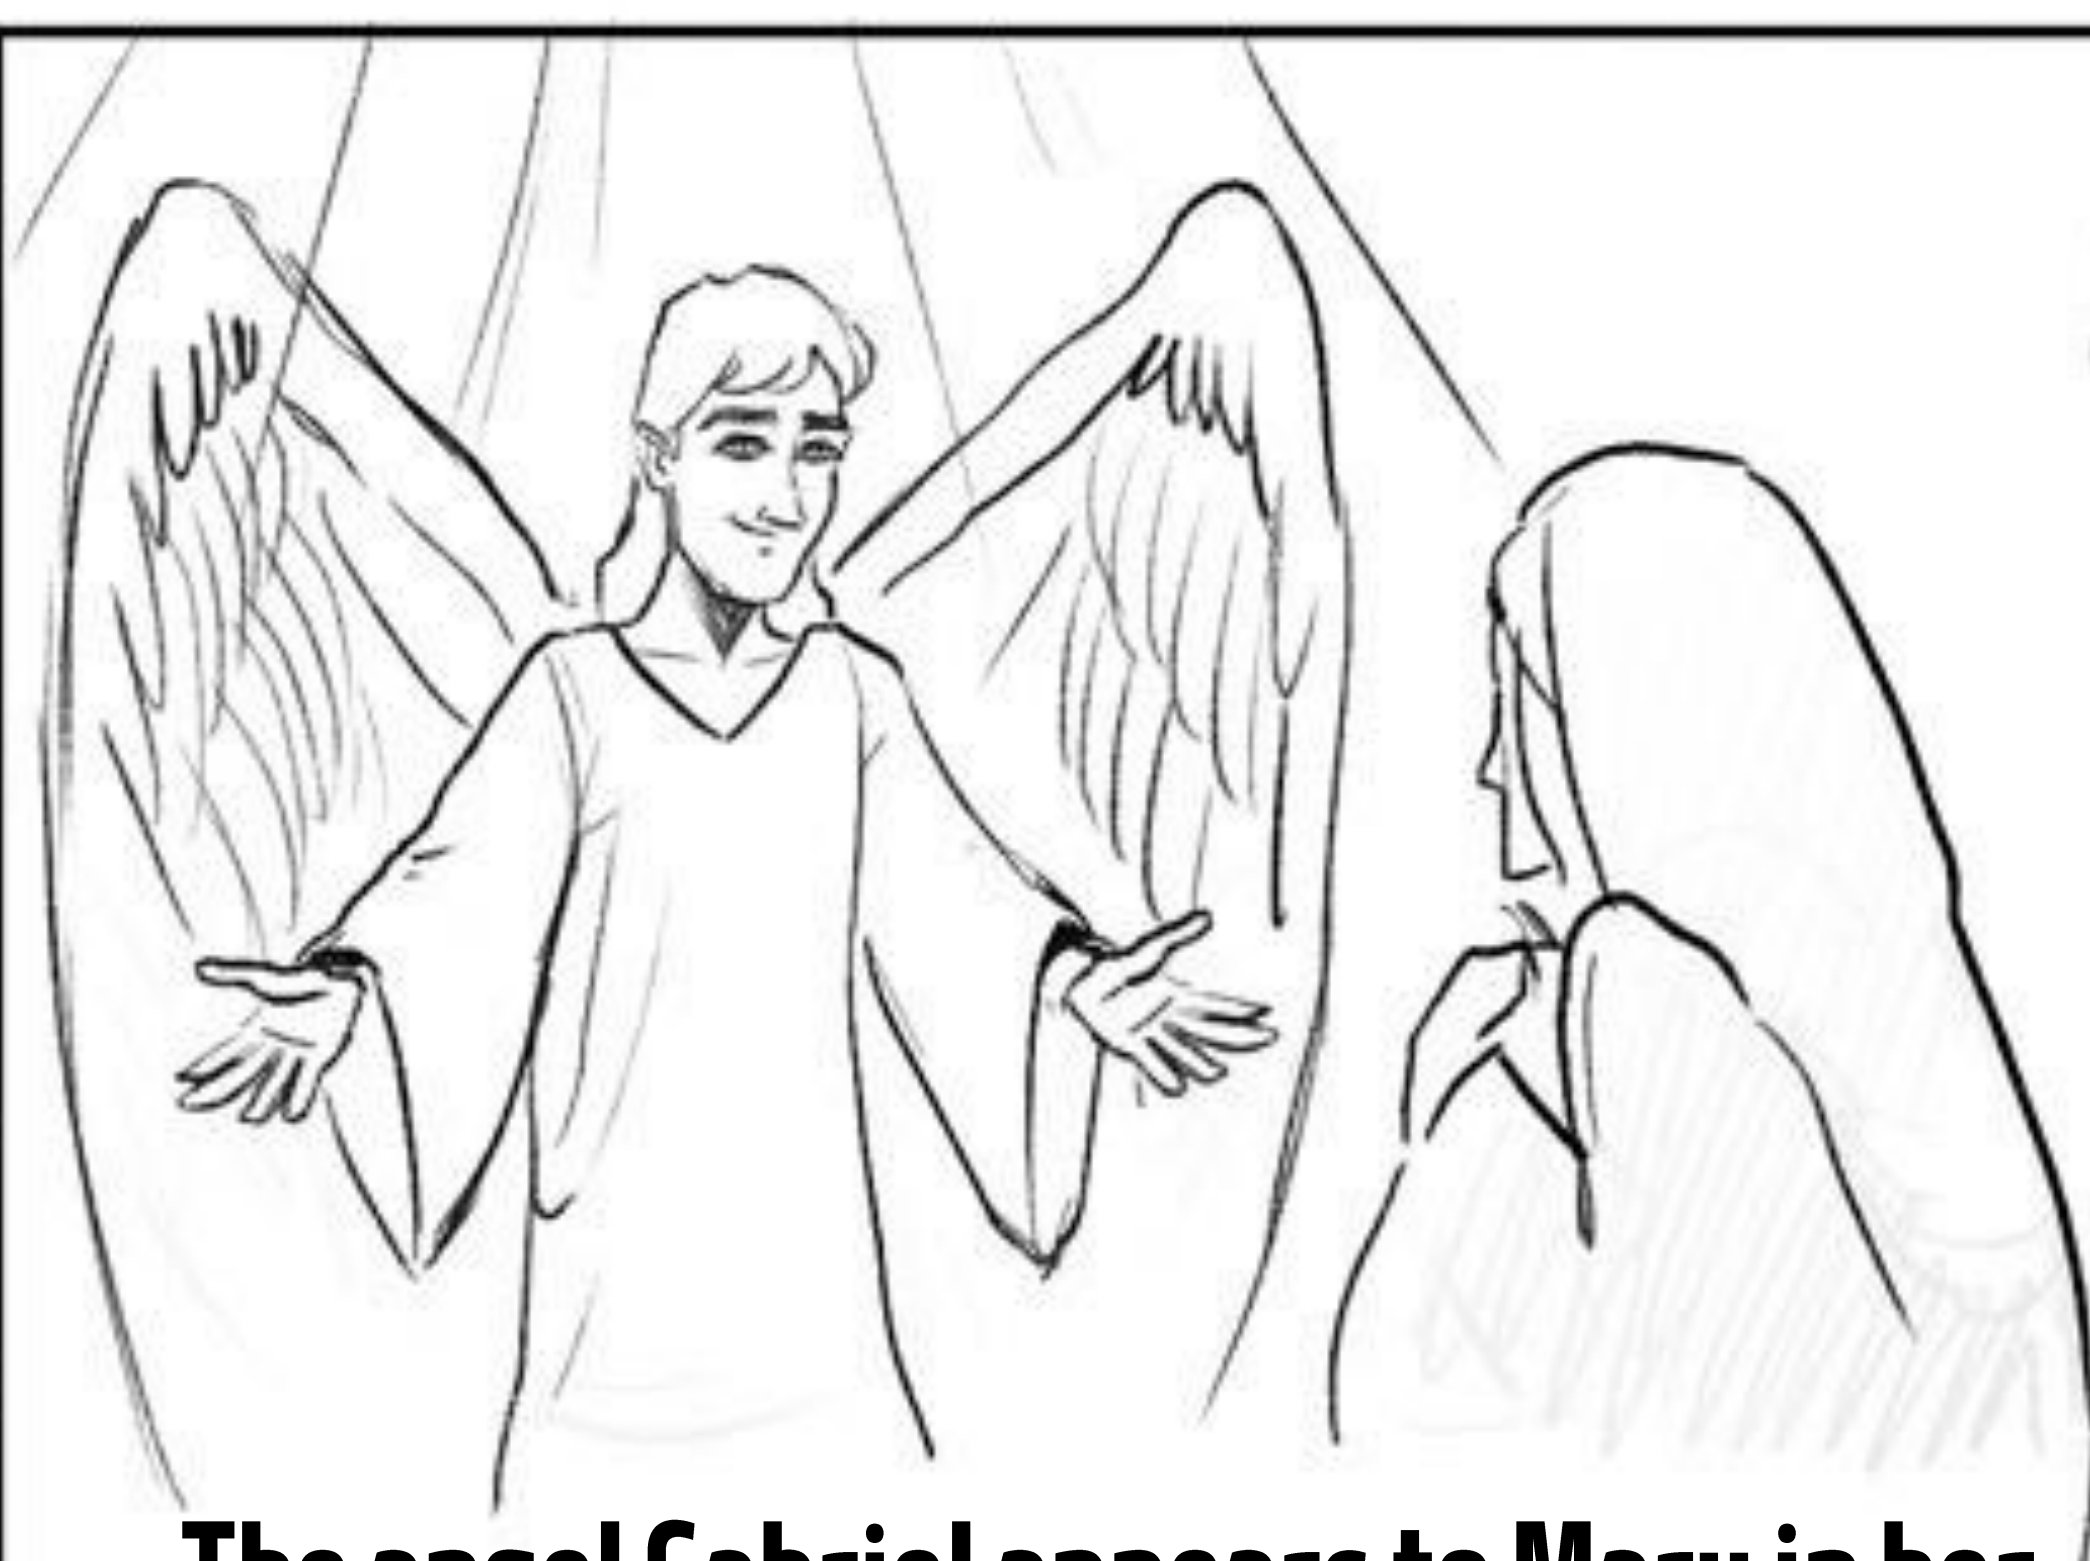

Jesus himself guaranteed this because he promised: «Where two or three are gathered in my name (in my love), I am there among them». And with him everything is possible!"
